I agree that in light of the activities you both are involved in this month your prep for a meaningful meeting may not be possible. I suggest Martin contact Corra to express that on Monday and let him know that we can attend but not likely to be ready to have meaningful discussion due to timing of other activities. I assume John wants to commit to one more meeting before he retires so the timing for him may not meet our needs.

I just don't think that making this mtg is going to be "doable" prior to Oct 31. I am not going to be able to devote any time to prepare for this.
